ESPIONAGE R

At 4:30 p.m. today Mr. Carl Hennrich of the Bureau advised that in all probability the unidentified soldier from whom GOLD said he got espionage information is DAVID GREENGLASS, Army Serial No. 32 88 24 73.

[REDACTED]

Mr. Hennrich said that GREENGLASS is a "red hot" subject at the moment.

HARRY GOLD - INFORMANT

I called Mr. Hemrich of the Bureau at 11:10 A.M. this date and advised him that in reviewing our files it appeared possible that THEODORE ALVIN HALL or SAVILLE SAX might be identical with captioned individual. I said it was my recommendation that we send an agent to Philadelphia with photographs of SAX in order that they may be exhibited to gold. Mr. Hemrich approved.

The copy of the photograph of EDWARD TELLER furnished this office by Albuquerque letter of May 31, 1950 was also delivered to Philadelphia.

I advised SA Harzenstein that SA T. F. Mitchell was en route to Philadelphia.

I called Inspector Carl Hennrich at the Bureau and advised him that we had just received information that GREENGLASS had requested one and one-half months' leave without pay from his employer to take his wife away for a recuperation period. The plant official to whom we spoke recalls that GREENGLASS' wife, within the past month or so, suffered some kind of a severe burn and that a call was made of fellow-employees to donate blood for blood transfusion for Mrs. GREENGLASS. He further advised the company that he would call tomorrow to see whether or not his leave had been approved and that he plans to leave Thursday.

I called the Bureau and advised them that we were requesting authority to interview GREENGLASS promptly. If he leaves the area, he may go to some area where agents are not familiar with his background. The story of his wife's illness may be partly fake. Too, if he does leave on such a vacation, it is hardly conceivable that a surveillance during that period would be particularly productive. I pointed out that in view of the fact that GREENGLASS was contacted by GOLD once in New Mexico, that he does not fit into the rest of the picture as far as GOLD is concerned and his other contacts unless GREENGLASS himself names one of GOLD's associates as a contact of his, GREENGLASS, prior to GOLD's contact with him. All of these things argued not only for an early interview with GREENGLASS, but also argued in favor of GREENGLASS being the first one to be interviewed and, it appeared logical that he could be interviewed before the others are interviewed.

RE: UNKNOWN AMERICAN NO. #5
Albuquerque, New Mexico
HARRY GOLD - INFORMANT
ESPIONAGE - R

At 1:30 P.M. on 6/3/50, I called Mr. Hennrich of the Bureau and told him we had located a photograph of GREENGLASS which we were sending to Philadelphia by a special agent on the afternoon of 6/3/50. I explained to Mr. Hennrich that GREENGLASS resides in the lower east side of New York; that we had surveyed the area from a standpoint of conducting a physical surveillance and that it was next to impossible to do so. It was explained to Mr. Hennrich that if there was a definite identification made of GREENGLASS, we could give further consideration to a physical surveillance.

I called Supervisor Harzenstein of the Philadelphia Office at 2:00 P.M. 6/3/50 and told him an agent from New York would bring to photograph of GREENGLASS to Philadelphia.

At 11:30 A.M. on 6/5/50, ASAC Whelan called Mr. Hennrich and advised him that the personnel manager of the Arma Company had advised this morning that GREENGLASS was at the plant and had requested a month and a half leave without pay. He explained the reason for this was that he wanted to take his wife away to recuperate from an injury she had received. We had been previously advised by the plant manager that a request had been made about a month ago for blood donors for GREENGLASS' wife as she had received serious injuries.

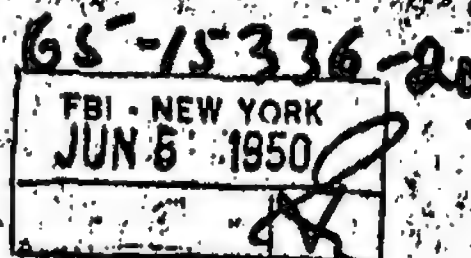

It was the suggestion of this office that we immediately interview GREENGLASS.

It was again pointed out to Mr. Hennrich that the neighborhood in which GREENGLASS lived made a discreet physical surveillance next to impossible.

I called Supervisor Brannigan of the Bureau back at 12 noon and referred him to the report of SA Lawrence W. Spillane dated 3/31/50 captioned "Dr. RALPH EUGENE LAPP, et al - AEA, THEFT OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY" page 13, which sets forth results of interview of GREENGLASS.

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

On June 3, 1950, the Credit Department at Macy's, New York City, was checked in connection with the charge account held by DAVID GREENGLASS at Macy's. They verified the fact that he held Charge Account #25-419110 taken out December 14, 1949. His address was given as 265 Rivington Street, Apartment #6, New York City. His wife was given as RUTH and his occupation was given as that of a machinist. He worked for the Arma Engineering Corporation, and received $107.00 per week salary. His telephone number was listed as OR 4-4673. A notation on the record indicated that Macy's had attempted to secure a credit report on him at the time he opened up the account, but that their source had no information.

It was further noted at this time that part of the credit record was not in the folder and the writer was advised that there was no way of checking on this at that time; however, this application which was missing might subsequently be obtained from either ~~Mr. SOREN~~ or ~~Mr. BELLE~~ LA 4-6000, Extension 2708. It was indicated that in addition to the above information, the application might also have a record of GREENGLASS' banking connection and any reference he might have given.

At 1:20 P. M., Mr. Harzenstein of the Philadelphia Office, and SA T. Scott Miller, calling from Philadelphia, advised that the graduation picture of GREENGLASS, taken in 1940, without his mortar board cap, has been identified by GOLD as being very similar and could easily be the man he has in mind. The 1950 pictures of GREENGLASS' wife, RUTH GOLD, states has the general appearance of the woman who was UNKNOWN AMERICAN No. 5's wife. However, she has a different hair style and appears older than the woman he recalls. The 1950 pictures of GREENGLASS reflect a man of heavier build than his mental picture of UNKNOWN AMERICAN No. 5, but the face, nose, and hair appear to be the same as the man he has in mind. SA Miller said they are now waiting for the motion pictures to see if an identification may be made from them.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent
- LESTER O. GALLAHER on June 5, 1950, with regard to DAVID GREENGLASS:

TA 7
The records of Haaren High School, 59th Street and Tenth Avenue, reflect GREENGLASS' attendance at that school from February, 1936 until he graduated on January 31, 1940. His date of birth on his high school record was shown as March 3, 1922. His parent's name was given as BARNET GREENGLASS. Address shown for GREENGLASS on the record was 64 Sheriff Street, New York City, (this address had been crossed off on the record and the address 265 Rivington Street, New York City, had been inserted).

His high school record reflects that he majored in aviation subjects while in attendance at the school. He received grades which are rated only as fair. However, he received a rating of good or average in conduct and character. He attended Junior High School #97, which according to the records of the Board of Education is now no longer in existence. Notations on the record reflect that transcripts of GREENGLASS' grades were sent to the following:

Q {
Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, November 22, 1939.
City College Evening School, 139th Street, September 17, 1940.
East Side Evening High School, September 25, 1940.
Defense Training, July 23, 1941.
City College of New York Day School, January 29, 1942.
ASTP, Fort Ord, California, December 6, 1943.
CCNY Evening School, September 18, 1947.

65-15336-30
There is a letter in the file on the letterhead of the ASTP Field Selection Board, 613th Ordnance Base, Armament Material Battalion, Fort Ord, California, requesting that the school furnish the record of DAVID GREENGLASS,

A photograph of GREENGLASS appears on his high school record, but it was noted that this photograph was of poor quality. An examination of the January, 1940 edition of "QUILL AND HAMMER", the class yearbook for GREENGLASS' graduating class, reflects that his photograph appears in this book. Further examination of the yearbook indicates that the photographs appearing therein were taken by one S. TARR, who had offices located at Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street. Examination of the New York Telephone Directory reflects that S. TARR'S business address is presently 607 Fifth Avenue. Inquiry made at this address elicited the information that S. TARR had sold his studio at 505 Fifth Avenue, New York City, to a photographic firm known as PODELL and PODELL, which is located at 505 Fifth Avenue.

TA8
Mr. BERNARD PODELL of the above firm, upon examination of his records, was able to locate four photographic negatives depicting DAVID GREENGLASS, taken in January, 1940. Mr. PODELL turned these negatives over to Agent GALLAHER in order that they might be brought to the New York Field Office for copying.

TA9
Miss MARTHA SHLENK of the Pratt Institute Evening School of Science and Technology, Brooklyn, New York, upon examination of her records, determined that GREENGLASS attended that school for two terms. These terms ended on June 14, 1948 and on October 14, 1948. While in attendance at Pratt Institute, GREENGLASS took the following subjects: Elements of Drafting, Algebra, Shop Drafting, Trigonometry II. His address was given as 265 Rivington Street, New York City.

TA 10
At the Registrar's Office of the Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, Brooklyn, New York, an examination was made of GREENGLASS' record while in attendance at that school. This record reflects that he applied for admission for the term beginning February, 1940. At that time his address was given as 64 Sheriff Street, Manhattan, New York. He stated that he was born at 64 Sheriff Street on February 3, 1922, and gave his father's name as BARNET GREENGLASS, nationality Russian, 64 Sheriff Street, New York City. His father is a machinist by occupation. His mother is TESSIE GREENGLASS, nationality Russian, occupation housewife. He listed his previous employments as electrical helper at neighborhood electric company during Summer of 1937, 1938; clutch assembler, M. Taignan & Company,

MEMO

NY 65-15336

July, 1939, soda dispenser, H. Greenglass, August, 1939, (night); machinist helper, B. Greenglass (father's store) after school.

GREENGLASS attended Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute for only one term, and in June, 1940, was requested to withdraw because of low grades. It is noted that a photograph is attached to his application for admission to Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, but it was also noted that this photograph was of poor quality.

GREENGLASS listed relatives and intimate friends interested in engineering or chemistry, this being JULIUS ROSENBERG, Electrical Engineer, and MILTON MANES, Food and Drug Department (chemist, Washington, D. C.). He gave as his hobbies: electrical experimenting, camera, athletics, model airplane building, automobile mechanics, sewing machines. He stated that he earned money during his attendance in high school doing clerical work for the National Youth Administration.

References listed by GREENGLASS were M. TAIGMAN, 242 West 22nd Street, New York City; Mrs. IDA KURLAND, 317 Lefferts Avenue, Brooklyn, New York and SAMUEL FREUND, 27 East 22nd Street, New York City.

A second copy of GREENGLASS' high school record appears in the file, having been forwarded in 1949. However, there is no second application for admission to the school, and the writer was informed by the registrar that it appeared that GREENGLASS had requested this transcript to be forwarded to the school, apparently with the idea of again applying for admission, but he had done nothing further in this matter.

Mr. Harzenstein called back at 1:45 and advised that GOLD could not positively identify the movies any more definitely than he has identified other photographs of GOLD that have been forwarded to Philadelphia.

With regard to the house on High Street in Albuquerque, GOLD could not definitely identify it as being the house where he met Unknown American #5.

RE: UNKNOWN AMERICAN #5

HARRY GOLD - INFORMANT
ESPIONAGE - R

The following efforts were made by the writer in an effort to obtain a high school photograph of RUTH GREENGLASS nee PRINTZ, wife of DAVID GREENGLASS.

On 6-6-50
Mr. CHARLES VISCONTI, employed in Mr. DONNELLY'S office at the New York Board of Education, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York, telephonically advised that the March, 1932 school census reflected that RUTH PRINTZ'S family resided at 254 Rivington Street, Manhattan and that RUTH at that time was attending Public School #4 and was in class 3A. He advised that her sister, DOROTHY, according to their records, was born in 1928 and was not attending school at that time. He stated that the Board of Education does not maintain central school records of all the schools attended by students and in order to determine this, the records must be searched through from school to school.

On 6-6-50
On the same day, Miss CELIA MERICAN, Clerk, Public School #4, Rivington and Pitt Streets, telephonically advised that the records of that school indicated that RUTH'S birth date was originally given as May 1, 1923, apparently her mother's statement, but it was later changed to April 30, 1924 with the notation "birth certificate" indicating that a birth certificate was presented to make this change. She advised that in 1935, RUTH went from Public School #4 to Public School #12, Manhattan in view of the fact that PS #4 only goes up to Grade 6B. The student then transferred to Junior High School. Miss MERICAN further indicated that RUTH'S surname originally appeared as PRINCE on her card but that this name was subsequently changed to PRINTZ. Her last address given at the school was 254 Rivington Street.

On 6-6-50
Mrs. MARY A. HALLINAN, Principal, Public School #12, advised telephonically that RUTH'S date of birth was given as May 1, 1923; that she graduated from this school in February, 1938, graduating from class 9B.

The record was thereafter transferred to Seward Park High School located at Essex, Grand and Ludlow Streets, Manhattan.

6-6-50 The records of Seward Park High School were personally checked by the writer with the assistance of Mrs. ROSE STALOFF, Administrative Assistant, and Dean of Girls. It was reflected that RUTH PRINTZ graduated from this school in January, 1941 having taken a commercial course. The records reflected that she was born on May 1, 1924 and resided at 254 Rivington Street. The file reflects that she had a good scholastic record but the records contain no photograph of her.

6-6-50 With the assistance of the above and JFRUSHA MEIGS, Librarian, the graduation year books for the graduating classes of January and June, 1940 through 1942 were checked for a photograph with negative results and further her name did not appear in the back of these books among students who also graduated but whose photographs did not appear. Mrs. STALOFF advised that transcripts of RUTH'S scholastic records were sent to Brooklyn College, Evening Session on April 17, 1942 and to Washington Irving High School, Evening Session on June 10, 1942.

6-6-50 Mrs. DAISY SHAW, General Assistant, Washington Irving High School, personally advised the writer on the same day that photographs of students are not requested by this school and not kept by it. A check of the school records by Mrs. SHAW confirmed this information. The records of the school reflected that RUTH resided at 254 Rivington Street and attended the school for one semester from November to June, 1942, taking courses in Geometry, Intermediate Algebra and Chemistry, apparently in preparation for attending college.

Mrs. SHAW advised that the records of this school indicated that RUTH had also attended the East Side Evening High School, 350 Grand Street, New York City from February, 1941 to January, 1942 and she advised further that this school is no longer in existence but that the records would have been transferred to Seward Park High School which is located at the same address.

MEMO

6-7-50
In view of the above, Mrs. STALOFF of Seward Park High School was recontacted on June 7, 1950 and verified this information stating that RUTH had taken a course in Hebrew, Geometry, Chemistry and European History from February, 1941 to January, 1942. There are no year books available for the school and no photograph was available.

6-6-50
On June 6, 1950, Mr. GEORGE FINN, Assistant to the Registrar, Brooklyn College, Bedford Avenue and Avenue H, Brooklyn, New York, advised that RUTH PRINTZ entered this school in September, 1942 as an official matriculated student in the evening school eligible for a Bachelor of Arts Degree. She withdrew from the school on January 22, 1943 and her record bears the following notation:

"Called gone".

It has been advised that this notation is placed only against the record of people who left the school to enter military service and that it means that RUTH claimed either that she contemplated or had decided to enter military service. He stated that no photograph of RUTH is available advising that 1939 was the last year in which school photographs were taken. Her residence was given as 254 Rivington Street. Her date of birth was given as May 1, 1924 and there was no record of her under her married name, GREENGLASS.

MEMO:

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECT #5
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
HARRY GOLD - INFORMANT
ESPIONAGE - R

The following investigation was conducted by SA LESTER D. GALLAHER on 6/6/50.

b7d [REDACTED] Macy's, furnished the contents of a credit application made by Mrs. RUTH GREENGLASS, 265 Rivington St, Apt 6, NYC on December 14, 1949. In the application she stated her husband DAVID GREENGLASS was employed as a machinist at Arma Engineering Corp, 36th St. and Third Avenue at a salary of $107. a week. He had been employed in this position 3 months. He had previously been employed as a machinist by Pitt Machine Products, 370 E. Houston St, NYC for a period of 3 years at a salary of $110. a week.

She stated they had a "checkmaster" account at the Manufacturers Trust Co, Grand and Norfolk St, NYC.

She gave the name of Mrs. DIANE EINSOHN, 7 St. James Place, NYC as a reference.

The records of the Motor Vehicle Bureau were checked and it was determined that GREENGLASS has neither a drivers or chauffeurs license for the current year.

The following investigation was conducted on 6/8/50:

In an effort to obtain a photograph of the RUTH GREENGLASS a survey was made in the neighborhood of 214 East 23rd Street, the address given on the GREENGLASS' marriage certificate as the place where they were married. It was determined that the address 214 East 23rd Street does not exist as such and the buildings in this vicinity are loft buildings occupied by printing establishments and by CARL DIETZGEN CO. drafting instrument manufacturers. No photographers

Espionage R.

Re Phone call of 6-12-50 with SA R. Granville.

The following investigation was conducted by SA Vincent Loughlin and the writer:

Through the cooperation of the Kingston PD
it was ascertained that NY plate 9D-2387
was issued for a 1937 Chevrolet Town sedan, registered to Leo BROOKS of Grahamsville N.Y.

The telephone for Leo Brooks is Grahamsville
2-770.

The Brooks Farm & Bungalow Colony is located on the continuation of the Ulster Heights road out of Ellenville, being in the so-called Beaverdam section, nearly 10 1/2 miles from Ellenville and about 3 miles from Grahamsville.

JUN 14 1950
N.Y.C. (6)
ROUTED TO	FILE

65-15336

65-15336-86-8

Sullivan County. The nearest neighbor to Brooks on the Ellenville side is one DAVE LEVITZ, a farmer, whom we later ascertained to be a cousin of Mrs. Brooks. This farm is about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile away. On the Grahamsville side, the neighbor nearest is the Beavertown Club, a local private fishing and hunting club. The caretaker is one IRVING HERBY, a local character of good repute according to Chief Richard Porter of the Ellenville PD. There is a clubhouse with sleeping accommodations there, and the membership is allegedly restricted, and is genteel entirely. It is about 0.8 miles from Brooks. Telephone - Grahamsville 2-777

The Brooks place consists of 3 bungalows in a semi-circle about 100 feet from the road. The Brooks family live in one of these.

As we drove by a woman frantically waved us to stop. She said she was Mrs. Brooks and was almost hysterical over the presence of a large snake in the grass near her house, and asked for help. We disposed of the snake, and she was grateful.

Under pretext, she directed us to Grahamsville. She said her husband is an electrician but is presently building a large chicken house, which is partially constructed, on the premises. She also said that 3 of the bungalows were rented to one family. As to the 4th, she said her husband met a man ^{from NYC} in Ellenville yesterday (Sunday - 6-11-50) who answered their ad in the NYC "Post", and drove him up to see the place. She said the latter's wife had phoned today to state that they would rent it for the season, and that the rental was $350. She said this couple has one child about 4 years and a small baby. No name was mentioned. She did not say when this couple would move in. It is noted that the season runs usually through the Jewish Holidays in September.

Mrs. Brooks said the mail comes through the Rural Route out of Grahamsville. Also, that there is a daily milk delivery by The Crowley Dairy. She indicated that the neighbor, Levitz, is her cousin.

It is apparent that Mrs Brooks is very talkative and very emotional, but friendly.

Wm. V. Krum, Postal Clerk, at Grahamsville said The Brooks have lived there about 6 years. No derogatory information was known. He said the Rural Carrier is Theron W. Hasbrouck, a native.

It is noted that the land on all sides of the Brooks place is heavily wooded --- and there are many places where the property could be surveilled, but it would be difficult to keep it discreet because of the lack of dwellings nearby, as well as the absence of vehicular traffic on the road.

MEMO

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

At 3:45 p.m. I called Mr. L. B. Nichols and advised that after the arraignment several of the newspapermen had come up to my office and asked me for background information. I said that we got along very well - most of it was innocuous stuff, but that they asked a few questions on which I desired to obtain his reaction before answering them; that I had indicated to them that I did not have the information available at the time.

I stated they were all interested in having the name of the company for which GREENGLASS worked. I stated that his employer, the ARMA Corporation, is working on classified material for the Navy. Mr. Nichols said this information could not be given the press.

I further advised that the press wanted to know the names and addresses of his mother-in-law, brothers and sisters. I said that I had held off on this, because his brother-in-law, JULIUS ROSENBERG, is being questioned in the office now and I did not want to give out any addresses that might trace Rosenberg to this office. Mr. Nichols said that regardless of this it would not be proper to give this information, for the reason that the man's family is not being arrested and there is nothing pertaining to them as of this moment. Mr. Nichols said there is nothing we can give them on any of these questions.

Mr. Belmont of the Bureau called at 11:30 AM, June 15, 1950, and wanted to know what our plans were with regard to our contemplated interviews of BROTHMAN, MOSKOWITZ, GREENGLASS, his wife RUTH, and PRINTZ.

I told Mr. Belmont we had prepared teletypes that were being forwarded to the Bureau and that with respect to BROTHMAN, we contemplated interviewing him on June 16th and before the completion of his interview would interview MOSKOWITZ.

I advised Mr. Belmont the only thing that was holding up picking up BROTHMAN was to be certain we had obtained all the information from GOLD and we were awaiting the results of Philadelphia's interview of BLACK.

With regard to GREENGLASS, I told Mr. Belmont we were moving in on him the afternoon of June 15th; that his wife was in the hospital suffering from an infection as the result of serious burns and it was the recommendation of this office that we not interview her at this time.

With regard to PRINTZ, I told Mr. Belmont we were holding off his interview until we had questioned GREENGLASS to obtain additional facts.

Mr. Belmont said this was satisfactory and requested a teletype be forwarded to the Bureau.

I called Inspector HEINRICH of the Bureau at 8:30 a.m. this date and spoke to he and Inspector BELMONT. I advised them that last night DAVID GREENGLASS between 1:30 a.m. and 1:40 a.m. had called his brother-in-law, LOUIS ABEL, 87 Columbia Street. At this time GREENGLASS told ABEL that he would not be home and that he wanted LOUIS to obtain an attorney and mentioned O. JOHN ROGGE. He said to tell RUTH, who is his wife, not to worry and that he made a statement. I pointed out that he then went to bed and at 2:20 a.m. ABEL contacted this office, at which time he said that when he spoke to GREENGLASS he was so groggy he did not understand what DAVE wanted him to do and wondered if he could speak to him. I pointed out that ASAC Whelan had told ABEL that at that time GREENGLASS was asleep, but that we would call him if he so desired. At this point ABEL said that he did not desire to wake him, and he asked that DAVE call him this morning.

I advised that GREENGLASS was furnished this information as soon as he awakened this morning at approximately 8 a.m., and that he called ABEL at 8:15 a.m. and advised him that he wanted an attorney and he told ABEL to get somebody and use his, ABEL's, own judgement.

Re: UNKNOWN AMERICAN NO. 5

At approximately 10:50 a.m. Mr. HERBERT J. ^{FABRICANT}FABERCAHN presented himself at my office. I introduced myself and told him in general that the reason we are talking to GREENGLASS is that our investigation indicated that he was engaged in espionage at Los Alamos, N.M., and had been contacted by GOLD; that we have talked to him in quite detail and he has admitted and given a signed statement that apparently GOLD was the man who he talked to, gave information to about his work in Los Alamos, and that he accepted money at the time. I told FABERCAHN that under departmental regulations certain violations are passed upon by the Department before they are turned over to the United States Attorney, as undoubtedly Mr. ROGGE is familiar, such as, Antitrust, Fraud Against the Government, Espionage. I told him that this matter is presently being considered by the Department to determine what charge and where it will be filed.

While I was talking to FABERCAHN, I received word from Mr. Heinrich at the Bureau that he had been talking to Mr. Saypol and that it was agreed an authorization on conspiracy would be filed in Albuquerque and GREENGLASS would be arraigned here.

Mr. Saypol called me right after that and asked that I send an agent to him that was familiar with the case so that he could study it. I then advised FABERCAHN that the Department had determined that Mr. Saypol should give this matter consideration and that he was presently studying it to see what action would be taken and when I learned what action they proposed to take I would advise them, since Mr. ROGGE had so requested.

Mr. FABERCANN then asked me if I understood that his firm might not agree to represent GREENGLASS, I told Mr. FABERCANN that that was not my understanding; that my understanding from Mr. ROGGE was that he had received a note on behalf of GREENGLASS requesting that he represent him, and as a result of that call, ROGGE advised me that he was sending FABERCANN over to talk to GREENGLASS. FABERCANN pointed out that perhaps if the fellow could not meet their fee they might not want to represent him. I told him that I could not permit him to talk to him on purely a fishing expedition, but that if they want to talk to him in response to his request as lawyers, which was my understanding of Mr. ROGGE's call, I invited him to do so. I then took FABERCANN in and introduced him to SA Frutkin and SA Lewis and suspect GREENGLASS.

I called Inspector Belmont at 2:50 p.m. June 16, 1950, and advised him that the agents have been talking to RUTH GREENGLASS, subject's wife, who was on a stretcher in the library of the hospital. The doctor who was in charge of the hospital and the doctor who is attending her made her available and no objection whatever to our talking to her was made. Agents report the doctor is completely cooperative.

Mrs. GREENGLASS has advised the agents that she won't make any statement to them whatsoever until she see her husband. I told Mr. Belmont that the agents have advised that an ambulance has been ordered to take her home and they will probably be in a position to suggest to her that the ambulance come to Foley Square and go to the basement and she could be taken up to see her husband in the Marshal's lock-up. The present information is that GREENGLASS will be held in the Marshal's lock-up in the building until approximately four o'clock. I advised Mr. Belmont further that ROGGE might come back, after he has had some lunch, to talk to GREENGLASS in the Marshal's lock-up. I told Belmont that it was my recommendation that in view of the fact that ROGGE might come back, that the press is here in this building and are alert for GREENGLASS, that it seems to me entirely unwise to even suggest to Mrs. GREENGLASS that she might be able to see him here. Belmont agreed.

Belmont suggested that we suggest to her that she might want to call her husband. I told Belmont that the Marshal's office is not set up here to permit prisoners to receive incoming telephone calls and I would not recommend that her hopes or anything else be raised by suggesting she call the Marshal's office here. My recommendation on his suggestion is

He said he was calling to inquire what the charge against GREENGLASS is and where he might see him. I advised Mr. Rogge that we did not take Greenglass into custody yesterday afternoon - that we talked to him yesterday afternoon and the facts developed have been presented to the Department and we are expecting to hear from the Department as to what the charge is and where they want to file it. He inquired as to who in the Department was in charge of the case. I told Mr. Rogge I would call him as soon as I had heard from the Department in this matter. He said his number is Elgby 9-1670.

Mr. Rogge then said that the arrangements I proposed were satisfactory except he would like to have a talk with Mr. Greenglass. I told Mr. Rogge I was expecting to hear from the Department almost any time now and when they give us the decision we will know exactly what the score is; that however, it is entirely up to him as to whether he wants to talk to GREENGLASS now or wait for awhile. Mr. Rogge said he would probably call me back as to this.

Edward Scheidt, Special Agent in Charge of the New York Office of the FBI, announced today the arrest of DAVID GREENGLASS on charges of espionage.

Mr. Scheidt stated that after extensive investigation the FBI has identified DAVID GREENGLASS, age 28, 265 Rivington Street, New York City, as the former U.S. Army non-commissioned officer at Albuquerque, New Mexico, who handed highly restricted information concerning the atomic bomb to an unknown ~~and~~ whom he now identifies as HARRY GOLD, recently indicted on charges of passing information from the convicted British spy, Klaus Fuchs, to the Russian Intelligence service.

As an explanation, GREENGLASS said "I felt it was gross negligence on the part of the United States not to give Russian the information about the atom bomb because she was an ally."

Greenglass is married and the father of two children

The complaint is presently being filed before the U.S. Commissioner and he will be arraigned before the U.S. Commissioner.

Around noon today I had several discussions with Mr. L. B. Nichols of the Bureau with reference to the proposed press release on the arrest of GREENGLASS. It was finally decided that the attached statement would be given by me informally to the press, as soon as we received word from New Mexico.

I advised that I understood that the press room is waiting for something; that Mr. Saypol may have let something drop; that I am trying to assure that we do not get scooped in any way, but the weakness is that the US Attorney in New Mexico is going to call Mr. Saypol on the removal angle. Mr. Nichols indicated that the Albuquerque Office is going to call the Bureau immediately that action is taken and that Mr. Hennrich will immediately relay it to me, and then we can take Greenglass into custody; that the release should be given out before we take him over. At this time Mr. Nichols indicated that if the press desired to take photographs of Agents with Subject, there would be no objection.

Mr. Nichols mentioned the desirability of having some personal data. I advised that at this time we did not have anything except that he is married, the father of two children and that he was born in March 1922. I said he is employed by the Arma Corporation but that I did not know if we should mention his place of employment.

At approximately 11:15 p.m. on June 15, 1950 I called Inspector Belmont at the Bureau and advised him that GREENGLASS has admitted meeting GOLD at Albuquerque in approximately June, 1945, under the name, as he recalls, of "DAVE". GREENGLASS is fairly positive of the picture of GOLD, however, he states that the picture of GOLD as shown to him is a little heavier than the man as he recalled him. He states that he believes that their meeting was effected by their matching torn pieces of paper, like a ticket. He admits receiving $500 from GOLD, but states that he did not take the money for the information he gave them. He admits that he worked on the Atom Bomb and that his information pertained to it, and admits his wife recruited him for this work.

I told Mr. Belmont that under the circumstances it did not appear to us that we could let this man go free without specific authorization from the Department. I requested that we be given instructions as to our method of procedure at this time as far as presenting the case, and also in the interim whether we should permit him to go home in the company of agents, who would remain with him, or whether or not we should keep in at the office. I recommended that in view of the possible embarrassment to him and to agents, through the necessity of explaining, and so forth, if he went home, that we hold him in the office pending determination of what was to be done in this case.

At approximately midnight Mr. Belmont called back and advised me that we were instructed to hold GREENGLASS in the office until they were able to get word, after full consideration, ^{with} ~~that~~ the Department has to the legal steps to be taken in the matter of arraignment. BELMONT instructed that GREENGLASS be put to bed and be given whatever food or drink, or whatever personal needs he desired, and that we, of course, guard him during the night. He further requested that any additional information, such as the signed statement, be forwarded to the Bureau by teletype.

I told Mr. Belmont that we would advise GREENGLASS that a violation has come to our attention through investigation and our talk with him that imposes the duty upon us to present it to the proper authorities; that the proper authorities will probably not be able to fully consider the case until sometime in the morning; that under the circumstances we do not feel at liberty to permit him to leave our company, in view of the fact that it might be more embarrassing to him and us to accompany him home and remain with him until the morning, we feel that it is necessary to invite him to remain with us and we will provide sleeping quarters for him. Arrangements were made for him to sleep in the Nurse's quarters with Agent Frutkin, who had been with him from the beginning of the interview in the early afternoon, who would occupy the adjacent bed, and two agents would remain on guard ~~and keep a log~~ and keep a log.

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE R

At 11:10 a.m. Mr. L. B. Nichols of the Bureau called to inquire if someone was working on the release and I advised that someone was. Mr. Nichols instructed not to make the release too long - to just say:

Edward Scheidt, SAC of the New York Office, announced the arrest of DAVID GREENGLASS by FBI Agents on a charge of espionage today. Then go on to say that after extensive investigation, Greenglass has been identified as the non-commissioned officer at Los Alamos, etc. who was contacted by HARRY GOLD on occasions when Gold was in Sante Fe for the purpose of contacting Dr. Klaus Fuchs. Greenglass had admitted passing on of restricted data pertaining to the atomic bomb to a man, whose true identity he did not know at the time but who he has now identified as Harry Gold. As his explanation he stated (quoting from his confession) "I felt it was gross negligence on the part of the United States not to give Russia information about the atom bomb because she was an ally." Then give his personal background and the like.

Mr. Nichols said before giving it out, it should be put on a teletype to the Bureau as he would like to show it to the Director.

Mr. Nichols said that when the Agents arraign him, if Agents want to give further details on him and it can be done, it is all right.

Mr. Nichols reiterated that the release should be short and to the point, with nothing further to be said afterwards. He said to have pictures ready to give out.

Harry Gold - Informant
ESPIONAGE - R

On June 15, 1950, the writer took twenty-four photographs of DAVID GREENGLASS and RUTH GREENGLASS to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where they were turned over to SAs T. SCOTT MILLER and RICHARD E. BRENNAN at the Philadelphia Office. Upon receipt of these photographs, SAs MILLER and BRENNAN immediately departed for Holmesburg Prison, where HARRY GOLD was confined, for the purpose of displaying the photographs to GOLD.

Upon completion of this interview, Agents MILLER and BRENNAN returned to the Philadelphia Office, at which time they returned the photographs to the writer. One of these photographs was shown to the writer as having been identified by GOLD and a handwritten statement was on the back written by GOLD. SAs MILLER and BRENNAN advised that they had not shown copies of photographs depicting GREENGLASS with his baby because of the fact that they felt that GOLD would be more reluctant to make the identification if he knew GREENGLASS had children.

Following receipt of the photographs, the writer again returned to New York and upon arrival at the New York Office, turned all the photographs over to Supervisor ROBERT R. GRANVILLE at approximately 1:30 a.m. on June 16, 1950.

All of the above-mentioned photographs were obtained by SAs LEO H. FRUTKIN, JOHN W. LEWIS, and JOHN A. HARRINGTON during a search of the residence of DAVID GREENGLASS and brought to the New York Office by SA WALTER C. ROETTING who turned them over to the writer.

At 2 ²⁹/_{PM} S.A. William F. Norton appeared on the street in front of 265 Livingston St, NYC and walked east on Livingston St. I was standing on the street in the vicinity of Columbus St and Livingston St. Norton motioned to me to follow him. We walked north on Cannon St from Livingston at which time Norton delivered to me a group of 24 pictures. At this point we were out of view of the surveillance car and the Livingston St address. Norton left immediately after requesting me to have them delivered to the FBI Office in a surveillance car. I then returned to the vicinity of Livingston St & Columbus St. where I turned the pictures over to S.A. Walter C. Roetting ^{in surveillance car} and repeated the request that same be delivered to the office. 765-15336-132 at 2 ³³/_{PM}

Thereafter I resumed my position on the street near 265 Livingston St and continued the surveillance.

At 10:35 this morning, Mr. MANIS of the "New York Journal American" telephonically contacted the writer and wanted to know if there were any further developments in the GREENGLASS case, and also if any further arrests were to be expected today.

I advised Mr. MANIS that there was no comment at the present time and that the only information available was that which was released by Mr. SCHEIDT yesterday.

Mr. MANIS again called at 12:10 P. M. and he was advised in the same manner as at the time of his first call.

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS;

I called Inspector A. H. Belmont at 2:45 and advised him that at the hearing before the Commissioner, at the request of USA Irving H. Saypol, the hearing was postponed until July 13, 1950 and bond was continued at $100,000.00. I advised Mr. Belmont that Mr. Rogge again made a request for reduction of bond, but that the Commissioner did not grant the request and I also advised him that Mr. Saypol returned the $8.00 subpoena fee in public to Mr. Rogge. The Commissioner ordered the agents to be available on July 13th in order that it would not be necessary to have the subpoenaed again.

I had previously advised Mr. Belmont on 6/22/50 that subpoenas had been served on SAs Leo H. Frutkin and John W. Lewis, and that they had been given the usual subpoena fee of $4.00 apiece. Mr. Belmont had authorized that we advise the United States Attorney Saypol that the Bureau desired that this money be returned to Rogge.

MEMO

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

I spoke with USA Saypol at 2:00 P.M. 6/23/50 and advised him the Grand Jury which was to hear this case in New Mexico was scheduled to have the case presented 7/6/50.

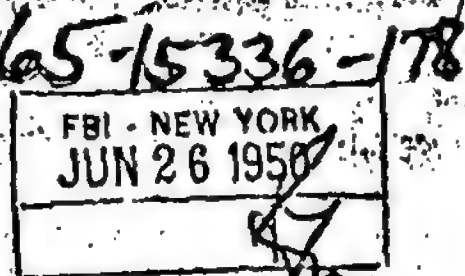

I also pointed out to Mr. Saypol that the Bureau has instructed that the $8.00 furnished as witness fees to agents of this office (SAs Frutkin and Lewis) for appearance at the U.S. Commissioner's hearing 6/23/50, was to be returned to Mr. Rogge. I asked Mr. Saypol if he desired to return the money or wished the agents to do it. He said he would return it and indicated he would make a statement about it before the Commissioner. I explained to him we wanted no fanfare or show in connection with the return of this money and desired that it be done quietly. He said he would abide by our request and handle the return of it in this fashion.

I also asked Mr. Saypol whether he desired to go over, at this time prior to the Commissioner's hearing, the exhibits that were obtained in connection with this case and he said that he would not.

MEMO

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

At 1:30 PM this date Mr. Belmont called and advised that on Monday, June 26, 1950, Mr. O. John Rogge had seen Assistant to the Director D. M. Ladd and had made overtures to Mr. Ladd. However, Mr. Rogge had been referred to the Department who had turned him down on any suggestions that he had.

This morning Mr. Rogge called Mr. McInerney and advised he had some evidence with respect to the GREENGLASS case and the Bureau has requested that an agent call on Mr. Rogge and obtain the material he offered. Mr. Belmont said the agent should make no commitments but to merely pick up the material Rogge offered and the Bureau should be called back and advised regarding this matter as soon as possible.

SA D. F. O'Connor has been instructed to contact Mr. Rogge and obtain the desired information.

Transmit the following Teletype message to: BUREAU -- URGENT

DAVID GREENGLASS, ESP. R. PURSUANT TO CALL FROM INSPECTOR A. H. BELMONT OF THE BUREAU, O. JOHN ROGGE, ATTORNEY FOR DAVID GREENGLASS WAS INTERVIEWED AT HIS OFFICE, FOUR NAUGHT ONE BROADWAY, NYC. ROGGE FEELS THAT GREENGLASS HAS NOT MADE COMPLETE DIVULGENCE OF HIS ACTIVITIES. FROM THE FAMILY RELATIONSHIP OF RUTH GREENGLASS, THE SUBJECT, AND JULIUS ROSENBERG, HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW, THERE ARE DOUBTLESS OTHER ITEMS THAT MIGHT BE DISCLOSED AND ROGGE FEELS HE WILL OBTAIN THESE ITEMS IN SUBSEQUENT CONSULTATIONS WITH HIS CLIENT. AS ONE ITEM, ROGGE SPECIFIED, "THEY" WANTED GREENGLASS TO STAY ON AT LOS ALAMOS AND HE REFUSED. ROGGE SAID HE DESIRES HIS CLIENT TO COOPERATE WITH THE GOVERNMENT BECAUSE IN SO DOING THE IDENTITY OF A MORE IMPORTANT INDIVIDUAL OR INDIVIDUALS MIGHT BE ASCERTAINED. GREENGLASS TOLD HIM THAT HIS CONTACT AT LOS ALAMOS WAS TO BE IDENTIFIED BY THE PRODUCTION OF ONE-HALF OF A BOX TOP, THE MATCHING PART OF THE BOX TOP BEING HELD BY GREENGLASS. HE SAID THE WHOLE BOX ORIGINATED WITH HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW. GREENGLASS SAID A PERSON OTHER THAN GOLD SHOULD HAVE BEEN THE CONTACT. HE SUGGESTED THAT GOLD BE QUESTIONED REGARDING THE IDENTITY OF THE PERSON WHO GAVE HIM THE ONE-HALF BOX TOP. THUS, WE MAY BE ABLE TO IDENTIFY A PERSON OF MORE IMPORTANCE THAN GREENGLASS. HE OFFERED THIS ITEM AS EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH TO COOPERATE. ROGGE SAID THERE IS ONLY ONE OTHER PERSON THAT GREENGLASS COULD IMPLICATE AND THAT IS HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW. HE CONTINUED THAT HE HAD NOT DISCUSSED THE PROGRAM OF COOPERATION WITH GREENGLASS BEFORE GOING TO WASHINGTON YESTERDAY. HE DID, HOWEVER, DISCUSS THE MATTER WITH RUTH GREENGLASS AND SHE WAS WILLING TO wanted cooperation

Transmit the following Teletype message to:

"by all means"

~~COOPERATE~~. THIS MORNING ROGGE TOOK UP THE MATTER WITH GREENGLASS AND NOW HE HAS THE AUTHORITY OF HIS CLIENT TO OFFER HIS COOPERATION. ROGGE SAID THAT UNTIL THIS PROGRAM OF COOPERATION IS WORKED OUT, HE DOES NOT WANT THE MATTER DISCUSSED WITH ROSENBERG. ROGGE NOW AWAITS THE DECISION OF THE DEPARTMENT AS TO THE PROGRAM OF COOPERATION. ROGGE SAID THAT, IN PRESENTING HIS PLAN OF COOPERATION TO RUTH GREENGLASS, HE TOLD HER THAT IN A PREVIOUS MATTER, SPECIFICALLY THE WILLIE BIOFF CASE, HE HAD SUGGESTED COOPERATION OF HIS CLIENT WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND HE SUCCEEDED IN OBTAINING LENIENCY. HE SAID THAT HE TOLD RUTH GREENGLASS THAT HE COULD MAKE NO PROMISES THAT HE WOULD OBTAIN LENIENCY IN THIS MATTER.

In view of fact that counsel for David and wife Ruth has offered their cooperation in the matter of disclosure it is suggested that if Department asks for FBI observations on this offer that we indicate that we ~~feel~~ believe valuable information could be obtained from David and Ruth if agents would be permitted to interview them directly and not through counsel.

MEMO

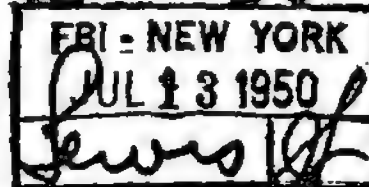

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS;
 ESPIONAGE - R

I called Mr. Leo L. Laughlin, Bureau, on 7/12/50, and advised him that we had determined that the hearing of DAVID GREENGLASS had been set over today from 7/13/50 to 8/2/50. I pointed out further that USA SDNY Irving H. Saypol had advised us that O. JOHN ROGGE had informed him his client wanted to cooperate with the government and he was going to hold a meeting in his office on 7/13/50 with GREENGLASS and invited us to be present. I told Mr. Laughlin that I was going to contact Mr. Saypol and get the details and call him back.

After contacting Mr. Saypol, I again called Mr. Laughlin and advised him that USA Saypol stated that ROGGE came to his office on the morning of 7/12/50 and advised that he was anxious to have his client cooperate with the government and felt that his client wanted to; that the main stumbling block at the present time seemed to be a brother-in-law. Mr. Rogge advised he had discussed this matter with Mr. McInerney at the Department. ROGGE indicated that he thought it would be to the advantage of the government and himself if this matter could be handled while his client is here in New York rather than in New Mexico and, to accomplish this end, ROGGE was wondering if the hearing on the removal could be postponed. Mr. Saypol said he would agree to postponement if ROGGE wanted to so move. ROGGE said he would. The two of them then went to the Commissioner's Office and Rogge then moved for postponement of hearing until 8/2/50 and Mr. Saypol agreed; and the Commissioner granted their request.

Mr. Saypol then stated he told Rogge he would have the Marshal bring GREENGLASS to his (Saypol's) office at 2:30 P. M., 7/13/50; and Rogge said he and Mrs. GREENGLASS would be present. Mr. Saypol told me he had advised SA John W. Lewis he would like to have him present at this meeting. Mr. Saypol told me further that he told Rogge that he (SAYPOL) could not and would not make any commitment in the matter of consideration as far as the defendant GREENGLASS was concerned; that Rogge and the defendant would have to place full confidence in the integrity of the United States Attorney in that matter.

WMW:MFB

WMM:MP

Mr. Saypol further indicated that, if ROGGE is sincere in his offer and it develops on 7/13/50 that the defendant GREENGLASS and his wife do want to cooperate, the preferable procedure would be to make them available to agents of this office to be interviewed whenever and wherever it would be mutually convenient without anyone from the United States Attorney's Office or Mr. Rogge's Office being present. I agreed with Mr. Saypol that this was the usual and preferable procedure. Mr. Saypol fully understands and has had experience in such matters and knows that the matter of milking a defendant dry sometimes involves interview and reinterview. I also indicated to Mr. Laughlin that I had had a visit from Miss Norma Abrams, of the NY Daily News at approximately 2:45 P. M., 7/12/50 and she advised me that the reporters in the building had all noted that Messrs. Saypol and Rogge had gone before the Commissioner and secured a postponement of the hearing in the GREENGLASS case from 7/13/50 to 8/2/50; that Rogge and Saypol were very pleasant toward each other, almost arm in arm, whereas previously they had been snarling at each other. The press assumes that Rogge's client, GREENGLASS, is now cooperating with the government.

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS;
 ESPIONAGE - R

This afternoon I advised Inspector A. H. Belmont, Bureau, that a conference was held this afternoon between USA Irving H. Saypol and O. John Rogge, attorney for the defendant; that Mr. Saypol made no promises and had gone so far as to inform ROGGE that, in the event RUTH GREENGLASS statement was sufficiently incriminating, he would indict her if necessary. Mr. Saypol arranged with Mr. Rogge to have the subject in the Marshal's office at 10:00 A. M., 7/14/50 for interview by agents; and Mr. Rogge is to bring RUTH GREENGLASS to our office at 1:30 P. M., 7/14/50 for interview by agents. Rogge will not be present during the interview.

MEMORANDUM:

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

At 5:30 this evening, in the absence of Inspector A. H. Belmont, I spoke with Inspector Leo Loughlin of the Bureau. I advised as follows:

Agents have completed for the day interviewing DAVID GREENGLASS and RUTH GREENGLASS, and in essence they informed us that in November, 1944, ROSENBERG asked RUTH GREENGLASS to go to Albuquerque, New Mexico, and persuade DAVID GREENGLASS to furnish information on the atomic bomb. RUTH did this on or about November 29, 1944, and DAVID agreed.

In January, 1945, DAVID came to New York City on furlough. ROSENBERG described to DAVID generally how the naval type atom bomb worked. DAVID then furnished ROSENBERG with the names of some of the personnel at Los Alamos who GREENGLASS considered ideologically suited for recruitment in espionage activities.

In February, 1945, RUTH moved to Albuquerque. Prior to going there, ROSENBERG had told her that she would be contacted in Albuquerque by "ANNE" who would pick up information received by RUTH from DAVID about the atomic bomb. RUTH was furnished with one-half of a piece of paper or cardboard, and "ANNE" was to have the matching piece (which ultimately was the piece GOLD had given to DAVID by ROSENBERG). "ANNE" was supposed to meet RUTH in front of a Safeway store on Central Avenue, Albuquerque, in the latter part of May, 1945. "ANNE" did not show. GOLD showed, on June 3, and the GOLD incident is exactly as we know it from previous information obtained.

The next furlough of GREENGLASS following the contact with GOLD was in the Fall of 1945. GREENGLASS came to New York City and furnished ROSENBERG with papers and notes and sketches he had made concerning the atom bomb--how it looks, what it is made of, etc., etc. GREENGLASS got no money on this occasion. He believes that it was at this time that the contact was made with the unknown man in the automobile through ROSENBERG as previously described.

ROUTED TO	FILE

New York, N. Y.

GREENGLASS was discharged in February, 1946, and until September, 1949, associated with ROSENBERG in business. GREENGLASS has learned through conversations with ROSENBERG that the latter has contacts in Upstate, New York, and in Cleveland, Ohio, which contacts GREENGLASS believes are espionage contacts, but of which he is not certain. He of course will go into his knowledge of these contacts as fully as necessary in later interviews. He believes that we have sufficient information to enable us to identify "ANNE" through investigation.

When FUCHS was arrested, ROSENBERG told GREENGLASS to get out of the country. GREENGLASS declined. When GOLD was arrested, ROSENBERG told GREENGLASS again to get out of the country, and gave him $500 in cash. GREENGLASS said this was not enough money, and a few days later, on May 28, 1950, ROSENBERG gave GREENGLASS $4,000 and told him to leave the country by June 11, going by way of Mexico and Sweden or Switzerland to Czechoslovakia. GREENGLASS said he hid this $4,000 high in the chimney in the fireplace in his residence at Rivington Street, New York City, and that it has been given to O. JOHN ROGGE as a fee. He says that ROGGE does not know the source of the money.

I described in detail in how obscure a manner GREENGLASS had hid the money in the chimney, which, according to GREENGLASS was in its hiding place when we had searched his apartment prior to his arrest. When ROSENBERG gave GREENGLASS the $4,000, ROSENBERG said that he, too, was going to leave the country, and that JOEL BARR had left the country. He told GREENGLASS that when he got to Czechoslovakia he would see several people he knows there.

GREENGLASS and RUTH decided between them not to leave the country. They planned to go someplace out of the city—to the mountains—and after ROSENBERG had left, planned on returning to New York City. GREENGLASS said ROSENBERG has thus far been unable to leave the country because he is under constant surveillance by the FBI. This latter is purely conjecture on the part of GREENGLASS.

With respect to our interview with RUTH thus far today, her story jibes with information we already know, except with one or two minor points which we will clear up in future interviews.

I advised Mr. Loughlin that undoubtedly the Bureau would desire to immediately present this additional information to the Department. I told Mr. Loughlin that the situation as it now stands has several problems with various aspects, all of which deserve consideration. I told him that we feel we have enough to warrant the issuance of process against ROSENBERG; that because of the lateness of the day and the fact that it is the last business day of the week, together with the fact that we have not completed our interviews with DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS as thoroughly as we would like to, we feel that bringing him in right now for questioning would be premature. We would like to have more ammunition in the way of additional facts from DAVID and RUTH to hit him with in order to make him break. On the other hand, we cannot assure the Bureau at all that if we do not bring him in we will be able to keep in full knowledge of his whereabouts over the weekend. Because of the neighborhood in which he lives, a physical surveillance cannot be conducted discreetly. He lives in Knickerbocker Village, a city housing development on the Lower East Side, a pushcart district. Agents in the neighborhood stand out like sore thumbs. The apartment house in which he lives takes in a full block. There are subterranean passage-ways to and from all the apartments within the block. GREENGLASS could go down to the cellar in his apartment and come out on any one of the four streets from any one of the apartments on those streets or from the stores on the streets he might choose. The only way we could run a surveillance on him and be assured of his whereabouts would be to station a man outside his door.

So far there is no reason to believe that ROSENBERG would take a powder this weekend. The situation as far as we know is in his mind the same as it was last weekend, with one exception. There was an article in the Journal-American Thursday night when GREENGLASS removal proceedings had been adjourned, and in the article it stated that SAYPOL and ROGGE had been practically arm-in-arm, whereas previously they had been snarling at each other. It was conjectured that GREENGLASS might be now cooperating with the Government. In all likelihood ROSENBERG has seen this article. The GREENGLASSES assure us that they will not tell ROSENBERG they are cooperating.

I suggested that if we do not move against ROSENBERG tonight, the Bureau sanction a discreet surveillance, and we will do what we have been doing on him today, namely, keeping track of him without heating him. Of course, if anything develops from his movements which indicates he intends to skip, we can tighten our surveillance; we will have to use our judgment as the situations arise. I requested that the Bureau consider these data and advise us what course they want us to follow.

Later in the evening, Inspector Belmont called. He inquired as to when we had last seen ROSENBERG. I told him five minutes ago we had placed him in his apartment at Rivington Street; that he was extremely hot. Mr. Belmont advised that the Bureau had already presented information previously on hand to the Department, and that they had not authorized on ROSENBERG. The Bureau was attempting to contact the Department to give them the additional information, but it did not appear we would have an answer on prosecution over the weekend. The Department does not exactly know what it wants to do about RUTH GREENGLASS.

Mr. Belmont wanted to know if we knew of any reason why ROSENBERG should attempt to skip this weekend any more than he would have last weekend. I told him we knew of none except the Journal-American article I had previously mentioned to Loughlin. Mr. Belmont stated that because of the lateness of the day and the impending weekend, plus the fact we had not gone into the GREENGLASSES' interviews as thoroughly as we would like, the Bureau was inclined not to press for an arrest of ROSENBERG at this time. I told him we felt the same way, but told him our problem of attempting to keep track of ROSENBERG in the event he decided to take a powder. He said we should conduct a discreet surveillance since a full surveillance was impractical. We should continue with the same tactics we have been using today. We should try to be reasonably sure of his whereabouts until the GREENGLASSES' stories crystallize and signed statements are taken covering the essential facts of ROSENBERG'S activities. We should be certain not to burn up ROSENBERG on the surveillance, but be reasonably sure we know where he is.

Supervisor Granville and the agents handling this matter were made aware of the Bureau's instructions at once.

A. J. TUOHY,
Special Agent.

MEMO

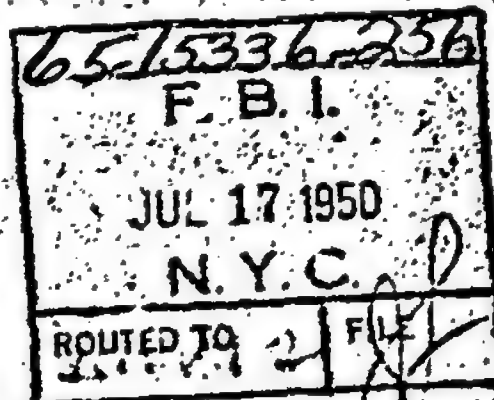

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

I talked with USA Saypol this morning and advised him that Mrs. GREENGLASS had requested permission to speak with DAVID GREENGLASS when they were both in the building being interviewed today. Mr. Saypol wanted to know if the GREENGLASSES were cooperative and I said they appeared to be. He said it would be satisfactory for RUTH GREENGLASS to see her husband and that when they desired to visit with one another for a short period of time, I should contact his secretary and she would have GREENGLASS brought to the U.S. Attorney's office by a Marshal where they could be together for a short period of time.

I also pointed out that Mrs. GREENGLASS had expressed a desire to have her son come over tomorrow afternoon, if possible, and Mr. Saypol said we could work out the same arrangements with regard to a visit tomorrow as is being done today; that is to contact the U.S. Attorney's office and have RUTH GREENGLASS meet him there, accompanied by the U.S. Marshal.

ESPIONAGE - R

Re Albuquerque letter July 13, 1950 requesting that this office interview DAVID GREENGLASS in an effort to ascertain whether or not WILLIAM SPINDLE is identical with unknown subject. [REDACTED] B2

[REDACTED] B2

However, in accordance with the request of the Albuquerque office, DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS (who have been displaying cooperative attitudes) were interviewed.

DAVID GREENGLASS advised that WILLIAM SPINDLE impressed him as being a "leftist" but he was unable to state whether or not WILLIAM SPINDLE was a member of the Communist Party. In contrast to several of DAVID GREENGLASS' associates at Los Alamos, WILLIAM SPINDLE was very secretive about the work he, SPINDLE, was doing at Los Alamos. SPINDLE refrained from discussing his work at Los Alamos. So far as DAVID GREENGLASS knew, SPINDLE was unknown to JULIUS ROSENBERG. DAVID GREENGLASS also advised that Mrs. SPINDLE had been active in the American Students' Union.

Mrs. RUTH GREENGLASS had no information to the effect that WILLIAM SPINDLE was a "leftist". Mrs. GREENGLASS stated that, so far as she knew, WILLIAM SPINDLE was not engaged in espionage and was not known to JULIUS ROSENBERG. RUC.

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

On July 24, 1950 Mr. FLOYD ELWYN, SR., Superintendent, 85 Barron Street, Greenwich Village, New York City, was contacted in connection with the ALFRED SARANT investigation, and related cases. Photos of subjects and suspects were displayed to him. At this time ELWYN said that RUTH GREENGLASS' photo appeared identical with a visitor to Apartment 4-N, 85 Barron Street, who he had seen within the last six months. He stated that Apartment 4-N is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. MILTON GOLDSTEIN, and that Mrs. GOLDSTEIN uses the alias of Mrs. ISAUER. ELWYN advised that he considers Mrs. GOLDSTEIN as a [REDACTED] b7c

It is noted that during an interview with ELWYN on July 21, 1950, he did not recognize photos of DAVID or RUTH GREENGLASS, although he said DAVID looked familiar and could have been a visitor to 65 Morton Street, or 85 Barron Street, New York City.

The indices of the New York Office were checked re MILTON GOLDSTEIN, and it was found that he was listed as a member of the [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] Party. The following case files were noted in the name MILTON GOLDSTEIN: b7c

On August 5, 1950, [redacted] Manhattan, New York City [redacted] telephonically advised that a client of his, Mrs. HANNAH SCHOENBERG, 200 Rivington Street, New York City (phone OR 4-5843) had advised him that she resided at the same address as the subject and had known the subject and his cousin, ROSENBERG, to be Communists. b-7-D

Mrs. SCHOENBERG advised [redacted] that both she and her husband, MORRIS SCHOENBERG, had had some relations with the subject as neighbors but when they learned that the GREENGLASS family were Communists, they ceased to visit them. b-7-D

It is noted that [redacted] advised that HANNAH SCHOENBERG indicated that she knew that GREENGLASS and ROSENBERG were Communists long before they were arrested by the FBI. [redacted] was of the opinion that HANNAH SCHOENBERG could furnish this office with additional information, but he desired that if she were contacted, his name not be disclosed. b-7-D

RE: UNKNOWN CONSULTANT, ASWAN DAM,
ESPIONAGE - R

On 8/16/50, DAVID GREENGLASS was reinterviewed for further clarification of instant matter.

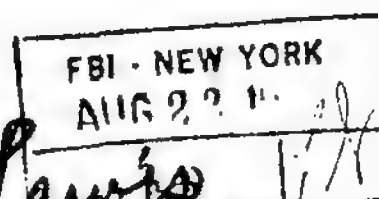

He recalled that one day in early Spring of 1948, while he was associated with Pitt Machine Products Inc, he ran into JULIUS ROSENBERG on the street (during lunch time) and asked ROSENBERG for money. ROSENBERG said he was short of funds but that he had a friend who had flown to Egypt "some time ago" on a dam job as a consulting engineer at $200.00 a day. ROSENBERG said he could borrow some money easily from that person.

GREENGLASS got the impression that the man was in the U.S. at the time of this conversation and was no longer working on the dam.

GREENGLASS could not make this information more specific.

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

DAVID GREENGLASS furnished the following information to SA LEO H. FRUTKIN and J. W. LEWIS on ~~July~~ ^{AUG} 18, 1950.

GREENGLASS said that he and his wife stopped at the El Fidel Hotel and the Franciscan Hotel at Albuquerque, New Mexico, at different times in 1944 and 1945, however, he was unable to recall which of these hotels they had resided at as of November 29, 1944.

Photographs of SAVILLE SAX and THEODORE ALVIN HALL were exhibited to GREENGLASS and he stated that he is not acquainted with either SAX or HALL and that the names are not at all familiar to him. He said that it is possible that he may have seen some individual who resembles HALL but if so he is unable to place this individual.

GREENGLASS stated that JULIUS ROSENBERG told him that GREENGLASS would have to leave the United States on or immediately after June 11, 1950. He said that the reason for the delay would be so that ROSENBERG could make some arrangements concerning the route to be taken by GREENGLASS and his family.

GREENGLASS advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG in operating the Pitt Machine Products Company and the G & R Company had had some of the grinding work for those companies done by two brothers whose last name was either DUNTOV or DUNTOF and that the DUNTOVS' business was at the same address as the Century Precision Company on 51st Street, New York City. GREENGLASS said some business was transacted between ROSENBERG and the DUNTOVS during 1946-47 and that GREENGLASS had seen the DUNTOV brothers in this connection.

GREENGLASS said that he had learned that the father of the DUNTOVS had been connected with the Russian government prior to the Red revolution and subsequent to the revolution had been allowed to leave Russia to act as a paymaster for some Russian students in Germany and that this man and the DUNTOV brothers had subsequently lived in France. GREENGLASS said he understood the DUNTOV brothers were aviators for the Loyalist Army during the Spanish Civil War. He said that one or both of the DUNTOV brothers owned a racing car and that at their place of business they were building a jet propelled helicopter. He was under the impression that they were building this helicopter for someone other other than themselves.

GREENGLASS described the DUNTOV brothers both as being:

Height	5' 7"
Age	In their early 40's in 1946
Weight	140 to 150 lbs.
Hair	Black, turning grey
Accent	Slightly French

DAVID GREENGLASS advised that through his association with JULIUS ROSENBERG, he got the impression that the Russians have a long range program of financing students in the United States so that ultimately the graduates of the principal universities in the United States will be about 30 per cent Communist sympathizers. He said that he gathered the impression that these principal universities include:

The University of California,
California Institute of Technology,
University of Chicago,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology,
University of Illinois
University of Rochester, Rensselaer Polytechnical.

Re report of SA LEO H. FRUTKIN dated August 5, 1950 at New York City.

An inspection of the premises at 10 Monroe Street, New York City on August 24, 1950 reflected that the apartment described by GREENGLASS as containing a good friend of JULIUS ROSENBERG who also is an engineer is Apartment 11D. The occupant of this apartment was listed in the main entrance as O. A. LAUFFER.

Mr. JOHN J. PARKER, Office Manager of Knickerbocker Village, 10 Monroe Street, New York City, checked his file and advised that OSWALD A. LAUFFER, his wife and two children reside in this apartment. He moved into 10 Monroe Street on August 15, 1945. Before that he resided with his sister MARIA LAUFFER at 785 Hewitt Place, Bronx, New York.

OSWALD A. LAUFFER indicated on his application that he is an engineer and in 1945 was employed by the Kellex Corporation, 233 Broadway, New York City. He also indicated that he has an account at the East River Savings Bank, 26 Courtland Street, New York City.

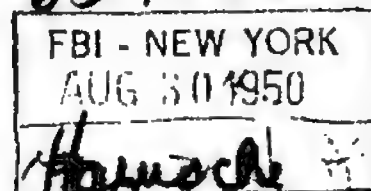

Two references were listed on his application as follows:

Mr. LEONARD TINKEL, school teacher

LAUFFER is married. His wife is named ANNE and he has a son named DAVID, age about 9. In addition, Mr. PARKER advised he has a second child, sex unknown, under 5 years of age. Mr. PARKER further advised that he did not know the present employment of LAUFFER as no additional leases have been signed. He also advised that on this date LAUFFER had been in to see him about obtaining a larger apartment.

Mr. PARKER estimated LAUFFER to be in his early or middle forties, and stated in his opinion that LAUFFER was a [REDACTED] He based his opinion on the belligerent attitude LAUFFER has, on his looks, and on the fact that in April, 1948 LAUFFER was one of a group of tenants in Knickerbocker Village who withheld payment of their rent because it had been increased 12 per cent. PARKER stated that from their experience, almost all the tenants who actively opposed the rent increase were [REDACTED] b-7-C

PARKER also advised that the reference, LEONARD TINKEL, 16 Monroe Street, New York City, listed by LAUFFER is possibly a relative of LAUFFER and that he is a school teacher and also [REDACTED] although he could furnish no basis for the belief. b-7-C

Mr. PARKER'S supervisor was also present during most of this time and advised that LAUFFER is presently employed by the New York City Housing Authority, Park Row, New York City. He recommended that if further information on LAUFFER is desired, Mr. HAROLD LUDWIG, also an employee of the New York City Housing Authority, or LUDWIG'S boss, AL DOWD, be contacted for this information as both are entirely reliable. Mr. PARKER also was acquainted with Mr. HAROLD LUDWIG and recommended him without qualifications.

The indices of the New York Office were checked for information on OSWALD A. LAUFFER, LEONARD TINKEL and Dr. LAWRENCE ATKIN with negative results.

Re Washington teletype to the Bureau dated August 21, 1950, 11:07 P.M., in captioned matter which disclosed that a complaint had been received August 11, 1950 by the Washington Field Office from an unknown woman to the effect that DAVID GREENGLASS, about six weeks prior to August 21, 1950 (or possibly six weeks prior to August 11, 1950), visited the New York Bargain House, Washington, D.C., owned by CLARENCE DARROW GUREWITZ. This unknown woman allegedly recognized DAVID GREENGLASS from his photograph in the newspapers.

On August 31, 1950 DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed by SA LEO H. FRUTKIN, at which time DAVID GREENGLASS stated categorically that he has not been in Washington, D.C. since the time he was in the United States Army stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland, or except when passing through Washington, D.C. by train during the time he was in the United States Army. DAVID GREENGLASS also stated that he never visited at, or heard of the New York Bargain House in Washington, D.C. He also stated that he did not know and never heard of one CLARENCE DARROW GUREWITZ, also known as CASSY, of Washington, D.C.

It may be noted that DAVID GREENGLASS was arrested and has been in custody since June 15, 1950.

Re: Memo of SA James Pl Lee, 7/26/50, NYC.

Records of Seward Park High School, Essex and Grand Streets, New York City, reflect only one graduate named PEARL GOLD between January, 1931 and January, 1944: She was born 9/30/19, daughter of LOUIS GOLD. She was admitted to school 9/11/33 and graduated June, 1936, having taken a commercial course. Her address at time of entrance is shown as 61 Montgomery Street, but a later address is given as 24 Attorney Street. Her IQ is 100. Her scholastic record appears satisfactory.

School records for the same period further contain the following:
ROSALIND GOLD, born 1/18/17, daughter of Louis, 61 Montgomery Street, entered 2/8/32 and graduated in January, 1935. THELMA GOLD, daughter of LOUIS GOLD, 2 Attorney Street, entered 2/1/38 and graduated in January, 1941.

Mail boxes at 2 Attorney Street indicate that "L. GOLD" occupies Apartment 15 at that address.

JACOB BERNSTEIN, Druggist, 420 Grand Street, and SAM GOLDING, Grocer, 416 Grand Street, both advised that, although familiar with the GOLD family from a business standpoint and although they realize that one or two of the daughters are married and have ~~XIVEXXX~~ moved elsewhere, said that they do not know the daughters by name and could provide no information concerning PEARL's current whereabouts or her married name.

TOM REID, Superintendent, 2 Attorney Street, advised that he has known the GOLDS since they first moved into the building about fifteen years ago and described them as quiet respectable persons of whom he knows nothing to indicate communistic tendencies or affiliations. Concerning PEARL GOLD, he provided essentially the following additional information: She married approximately seven years ago, doubtless here in New York City. She married a red-headed man whose last name is KUSHNER, but whose first name is unknown to him. KUSHNER shortly thereafter went into military service. Before that, he and PEARL lived at an unknown address in the Lower East Side for a year or so. While KUSHNER was away in service, PEARL lived with her parents at 2 Attorney Street. After KUSHNER's discharge he and PEARL moved to Brooklyn, but the address and section are unknown to him. After his return from service and while they were living

They were found to reside at 505 Columbia Street in the Red Hook Housing Project. b-7-C b-7-D

B. above reflects information made available to SA's Charles W. Johnson Jr. and Harvey E. C. above lists PEARL KUSHNER, 795 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, as one who solicited signatures for the [redacted] for SIMON W. GERSON for City Councilman from Brooklyn in August, 1948. This address is also in the Red Hook Housing Project. b-7-C

D. above represents a list dated 9/16/49 of persons communicating with HAROLD E. MEDINA, Judge, U. S. District Court, Southern District of New York, protesting the trial of the eleven leading Communist Party leaders, which contains such a communication from "PEARL KUSHNER, 795 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N.Y."

E. above, which may or may not refer to the PEARL GOLD KUSHNER in question, represents a list of employees of the Electronic Corporation of America, 45 West 18th Street, NYC, for the period 4/1/46 to 6/30/46, as made available by [redacted] which includes one PEARL KUSHNER, SS No. 056-07-6861, and reflects the taxable wage amount, "$90.86."

Among references to the name LOUIS KUSHNER, only several of which have been examined, is one--121-5540--which indicates that a person of that name, 437 Grand Street, witnessed a 1940 nominating petition of the Communist Party for BROWDER and FORD, page 8914. It is noted that the address given is in the immediate neighborhood of 2 Attorney Street, where PEARL GOLD appears to have resided at that time.

Birth certificates of the New York State Department of Health, Borough of Brooklyn, contain one numbered 45380, certifying the birth of SANDRA EVE KUSHNER, October 4, 1948, a white female, born at the Crown Heights Hospital, Brooklyn. She is indicated as the only child born of that pregnancy and the first child born alive to her mother. The attending physician was JANE R. WINER, M.D., 190 New York Avenue, Brooklyn. The child's father, LOUIS KUSHNER, 31, white, born USA, an upholstery salesman. The child's mother, PEARL GOLD, 28, white, born USA, a housewife.

9/1/50 Inasmuch as the PEARL GOLD referred to by RUTH GREENGLASS seems by the above investigation to have been identified and located, a teletype to the Bureau, requesting permission to interview her concerning ETHEL ROSENBERG's alleged Communist Party affiliations, is being prepared.

On August 24, 1950, Mrs. HANNAH SCHOENBERG, 265 Rivington Street, New York City, was interviewed regarding captioned subject.

She advised they have lived at that address for about 4½ years and during this time became acquainted with the subject and his wife, who also reside at that address and are neighbors. Both Mrs. SCHOENBERG and her husband are anti-Communists. Her husband has been in the photography business and belonged to a photo league (union), the name of which she is unable to recall. He resigned from the league when he discovered it was Communist controlled.

With reference to the GREENGLASSES, she stated that they were never close friends but formerly did visit back and forth and took care of each other's children on occasions. Lately even this intercourse had been discontinued because the GREENGLASSES had the habit of borrowing food items and never returning them. She had no knowledge of any espionage activities on the part of GREENGLASS but stated she was of the opinion they were Communists. She based this opinion on the fact they bought the "PM" newspaper, and for the following reason:

At one time a woman friend of Mrs. GREENGLASS, named "CEL" or "CELIA" (last name unknown), had a pressure on her brain. The GREENGLASSES reportedly stated at that time that Russia was the only place where an operation to relieve this pressure could be successfully performed.

Mrs. SCHOENBERG had also on one or two occasions seen Mr. and Mrs. ROSENBERG at the GREENGLASS residence but was unable to furnish any information concerning them. She knew none of the other GREENGLASS visitors by name.

In conclusion, she stated the GREENGLASSES were difficult people to be sociable with since they had no outside interests and always only talked about how smart their child was.

ESPIONAGE - R

On August 22, 31 and September 1, 1950 DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed at the Tombs Prison, New York City, by the writer.

At the request of SA WILLIAM F. NORTON, Jr., DAVID GREENGLASS was shown a gold Driva Geneve lady's wrist watch with a gold wrist band, alleged to be the property of ETHEL ROSENBERG. DAVID GREENGLASS stated that he did not recognize this watch at all, and had no recollection of ever having seen it in the possession of ETHEL ROSENBERG. DAVID GREENGLASS advised at first that he had no recollection of JULIUS ROSENBERG telling him that ETHEL had received a wrist watch as a gift from the Russians or anyone else. However, on second thought, DAVID GREENGLASS recalled that while he was working at Pitt Machine Products Company JULIUS ROSENBERG mentioned to him that ETHEL had gotten a watch as a gift, but JULIUS ROSENBERG did not say specifically what the source of the gift was, except to indicate vaguely that it came from some friends. DAVID GREENGLASS was of the opinion that this meant it came from the Russians. GREENGLASS admitted he had no proof to substantiate that opinion. DAVID GREENGLASS repeated that he did not recall seeing the watch in question in possession of ETHEL ROSENBERG, nor did he have any recollection of having asked ETHEL about the gift.

W. Norton
In accordance with the lead set out in Washington Field Office teletype dated August 17, 1950, at 7:44 p.m., entitled "JULIUS ROSENBERG; ESPIONAGE - R", DAVID GREENGLASS was asked whether or not he knew one ABRAHAM FOOKSON. DAVID replied that he had no knowledge whatsoever of such an individual.

In accordance with Washington Field Office letter to the Bureau dated August 15, 1950, entitled "JULIUS ROSENBERG; ESPIONAGE - R", DAVID GREENGLASS was asked about PHIL HOWARD WEISS and JOSEPH JAFFE. DAVID GREENGLASS stated that he did not know either person.

In accordance with the request contained in Albany letter to the Bureau, dated August 8, 1950 in the case entitled "ALFRED SARANT; ESPIONAGE - R", DAVID GREENGLASS was shown a photograph of MAX FINESTONE. He was unable to recognize the photograph and stated also that he knew no one by that name.

DAVID GREENGLASS categorically denied ever joining the Communist Party under any name whatsoever.

In accordance with the lead contained in Washington Field teletype dated August 9, 1950 at 9:34 p.m. in the case entitled "JULIUS ROSENBERG; ESPIONAGE - R", DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed concerning LEO SHUPERT. DAVID GREENGLASS advised that he did not know this individual.

DAVID GREENGLASS was also interviewed as to the identity of EVELYNE MARSH, whose name appeared scratched on the face of a typewriter found in JULIUS ROSENBERG'S apartment. DAVID GREENGLASS stated that he never saw the name scratched on the typewriter and did not know anyone by that name.

In accordance with the request contained in Albany teletype dated July 29, 1950, 2:02 p.m., regarding "ALFRED SARANT; ESPIONAGE - R", photographs of ALFRED and LOUISE SARANT were displayed to DAVID GREENGLASS, who stated that he did not recognize them.

In accordance with Washington Field teletype dated August 4, 1950 at 8:24 p.m. regarding "JULIUS ROSENBERG; ESPIONAGE - R", DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed relative to STANLEY MAGNES. DAVID GREENGLASS advised that this individual was unknown to him.

DAVID GREENGLASS was also interviewed as to the name he was instructed to use in the event he fled to Mexico City. DAVID GREENGLASS was unable to recall with any exactness what the name was, but had the vague recollection that it was "J. ROBINSON". He stated that he was certain that his instructions were that on arrival at Mexico City he was to write to the "Secretary to the Ambassador of the Soviet Union". DAVID GREENGLASS was unable to remember the exact message he was to convey in that letter.

DAVID GREENGLASS also stated that in his only contact with HARRY GOLD in June, 1945, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, he did not give HARRY GOLD any phone number in New York City where HARRY GOLD could later reach him. DAVID GREENGLASS stated he does not recall making any arrangements for GOLD to contact him in New York City.

DAVID GREENGLASS also stated that he informed the Grand Jury of the Southern District of New York that 30% of the personnel at Los Alamos, New Mexico (while GREENGLASS was employed there) were leftists. It may be noted that it has been previously reported that DAVID GREENGLASS furnished the names of the following persons who, in his opinion, were [redacted] at Los Alamos: BENJAMIN BEDERSON, Dr. BOHR and HENRY LINSHITZ. b-7-C

With regard to Dr. BOHR, DAVID GREENGLASS previously confirmed the information of his that he learned that this individual was an alleged [redacted] only through the general talk at Los Alamos. DAVID GREENGLASS had no actual basis to substantiate the foregoing opinion of Dr. BOHR and HENRY LINSHITZ. b-7-C

DAVID GREENGLASS was specifically interrogated as to the identity of those individuals at Los Alamos who made up the 30% he had referred to before the Grand Jury. DAVID GREENGLASS stated he was unable to recall the names of these individuals, but believed that if he had a personnel list of all those who had been employed at Los Alamos, he might be able to name some of those who he had heard were leftists.

MEYER SUSSMAN, Apartment 59, 50 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, was interviewed on September 8, 1950 by SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR and the writer, at which time he advised as follows:

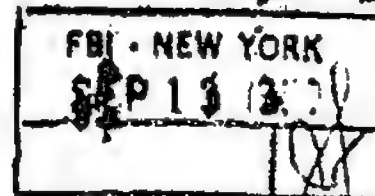

He attended CCNY Night School in 1937-1938 and took courses in general philosophy and psychology. These courses were given at the Monroe High School in Brooklyn. SUSSMAN therefore was not in contact with any of the CCNY engineering students and did not meet JULIUS ROSENBERG.

In 1941, SUSSMAN secured employment in a civilian capacity with the U. S. Signal Corps at Governors Island and as his first assignment was sent to Mc Cord Field, near Tacoma, Washington. The climate on the West Coast did not agree with him and he therefore returned to New York City in about 1943. In April, 1943, he was assigned as a civilian inspector by the Signal Corps to the Jefferson Travis Radio Corporation on 2nd Avenue, New York City. The Signal Corps Inspector - Engineer in charge at that plant was JULIUS ROSENBERG. ROSENBERG was a friendly person and SUSSMAN and the other Signal Corps employees liked him. However, the relationship was a business one and SUSSMAN and ROSENBERG did not have any contact after business hours. SUSSMAN and the other employees probably went to lunch with ROSENBERG on several occasions and SUSSMAN recalled having seen ETHEL ROSENBERG at the plant on one occasion.

SUSSMAN left the Jefferson Travis Radio Corporation in September, 1943 and entered the U. S. Army, where he was assigned to the Air Force. During the time that SUSSMAN was at the Jefferson Travis Radio Corporation, there were two Signal Corps jobs. The first was a transmitter and receiver in one unit which was very poorly designed. To SUSSMAN'S knowledge, none of these units were ever shipped while he was at the plant. The second job was a three tube walkie-talkie.

SUSSMAN served in the U. S. Army until February 28, 1946. He received his basic training in Florida and thereafter served at Kearns, Utah; Colorado Springs, Colorado; Galveston, Texas; Pyote, Texas and McCook, Nebraska.

SUSSMAN does not recall that he was in contact during the period of his (SUSSMAN'S) Army service with ROSENBERG; however, he stated that it was possible that he may have sent a postcard to ROSENBERG as well as to other employees at the Jefferson Travis Radio Corporation. After his discharge from the Army, SUSSMAN returned to New York City and after a short rest, secured employment at the Newark Airport, where he was engaged in preparing Army planes for storage. Subsequently he and several other fellows organized AIR FREIGHT, INC. at the Newark Airport, but after six or seven months, this corporation went out of business.

DAVID ALTBROUCH, the Vice-President of AIR FREIGHT, INC., SUSSMAN, DAVID FLANAGAN and RICHARD BURKE then formed the SUSS-HALL IMPORTING & EXPORTING COMPANY. FLANAGAN and BURKE were supposed to travel around the country looking for customers who wanted scarce materials. ALTBROUCH and SUSSMAN were then supposed to find the materials. The company was only in existence for several months, no deals were ever consummated and the company did not obtain an export license. However, ALTBROUCH and SUSSMAN did spend considerable effort to locate scarce materials, such as radio parts, hardware and so forth.

In so doing, they contacted every person they knew who might help them. SUSSMAN telephoned ROSENBERG'S home and was referred by Mrs. ROSENBERG to the office of the G & R ENGINEERING COMPANY. Finally after repeated efforts, SUSSMAN was able to contact ROSENBERG telephonically at his place of business. ROSENBERG said that he could not obtain radio parts, but that he could be of assistance if SUSSMAN wanted machinery. SUSSMAN pointed out that it just happened that an exporter (name not recalled), located in the Broadway-Wall Street area of New York City, had asked the SUSS-HALL COMPANY to obtain a list of machinery that they could get. SUSSMAN therefore went to the offices of the G & R ENGINEERING COMPANY and spoke to ROSENBERG, who indicated that he could get machinery from the surplus warehouses. SUSSMAN recalled that someone had also asked the SUSS-HALL COMPANY to obtain some twill cloth and that ROSENBERG had indicated that he might be able to obtain some of that material for the SUSS-HALL COMPANY. SUSSMAN only visited ROSENBERG on this one occasion and nothing came of the negotiations for the machinery or the twill cloth, although SUSSMAN believes ROSENBERG did submit a list of machinery which he could obtain. SUSSMAN has had no further contact in any way with ROSENBERG.

A photograph of JULIUS ROSENBERG was exhibited to SUSSMAN and he readily identified it. A photograph of DAVID GREENGLASS was exhibited to SUSSMAN, but he stated that he cannot recall ever having met GREENGLASS, although it is possible that he may have met him casually in ROSENBERG'S office.

SUSSMAN stated that ROSENBERG never approached him to engage in any espionage or obtain any information for him. SUSSMAN stated that he had no knowledge of ROSENBERG'S employment from 1943 to 1946 and did not know that ROSENBERG had been employed by the U. S. Signal Corps at the EMERSON RADIO COMPANY. He vaguely recalled that ROSENBERG had indicated that he had at one time engaged in aircraft work.

Photographs of JOEL BARR and ALFRED SARANT were exhibited to SUSSMAN but he was unable to identify either of these individuals.

It is also noted that SUSSMAN stated that he does not have any relative by the name of NATHAN SUSSMAN.

Additional background information given by SUSSMAN reflected that after the SUSS-HALL COMPANY went out of existence, he worked for about a year with the SOUND SCRIBER CORPORATION in New York City and then started attending classes at Columbia University. He has obtained his B.S. degree and is now taking graduate courses in psychology at Columbia University. SUSSMAN indicated that he is not presently employed as a taxi cab driver.

It is noted that while in SUSSMAN'S apartment, the agents saw a television set and a radio receiving set, but no transmitter. SUSSMAN stated that he does not have a transmitter's license.

SA O'CONNOR also noticed an album of records in SUSSMAN'S apartment entitled "SOVIET SONGS FROM SOVIET FILMS".

Re: DAVID GREENGLASS, was.
ESPIONAGE - R

It will be noted that DAVID GREENGLASS advised SA JOHN A. HARRINGTON on August 31, 1950 that the name J. DI GIACOMO, 156 Sullivan Street, which name appeared in a small telephone book found in the GREENGLASS apartment, is one of the names he believes he furnished to HARRY GOLD as a possible recruit at Los Alamos.

JOSEPH DANIEL DI GIACOMO, Apartment 5-A, 171 6th Avenue, New York City, who is employed as an engineer at Printing Industries Equipment, Inc., 135 West 20th Street, New York City, advised that he first became acquainted with DAVID GREENGLASS in the summer of 1944, at which time they were both serving in the United States Army and assigned to the Los Alamos project. DI GIACOMO said that during the time he was at Los Alamos, he never worked in the same group or section with GREENGLASS; however, they were quartered in the same barracks and on a few occasions played cards together.

According to DI GIACOMO, GREENGLASS impressed him as being a "leftist", explaining that he was show impressed by statements made by GREENGLASS, such as "when the Russians were fighting the 'Finns' he was so distrubed that he was thinking about 'joining up' to fight with the Russians." GREENGLASS had also expressed his admiration for Russia and spoke in favor of opening a second front.

DI GIACOMO stated that he was never approached by GREENGLASS or any other person to furnish information concerning his work or his knowledge of the work being performed at Los Alamos. He said that he had never had any reason to suspect GREENGLASS or any of the other individuals at Los Alamos were in any way involved in furnishing information to unauthorized sources concerning the Los Alamos project.

DI GIACOMO stated that only two persons assigned to Los Alamos that he knew might possibly have Communist leanings were WILLIAM SPINDEL and BENNIE BEDERSEN (ph.). He advised that he is of this opinion inasmuch as these two individuals had expressed admiration for Russia, had strongly avored the opening of a second front, and through other statements, the exact nature of which he is unable to recall at the present time. He further advised that to his knowledge GREENGLASS was not closely associated with either SPINDEL or BEDERSEN.

The indices of the New York Office contain no references pertaining to JOSEPH DANIEL DI GIACOMO other than those in connection with instant case. It will be noted that leads have been previously set out to identify and consider the advisability of interviewing WILLIAM SPINDEL and BENNIE BEDERSEN.

It will be noted that the name MYRON DALY, 41 Division Street, New York City, appeared in the small telephone book found in the GREENGLASS apartment. It is the belief of GREENGLASS that he furnished DALY'S name to HARRY GOLD as a possible recruit at Los Alamos.

MYRON DALY, 1985 Creston Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised that from about April, 1943 to December, 1945, while serving in the United States Army, he was assigned to the G-3 Section (Magnetics) at Los Alamos, New Mexico. He said that upon reading of the arrest of DAVID GREENGLASS in the New York City newspapers, he was unable to place this individual. However, subsequently, when discussing the matter with SIDNEY L. LANCIT, Irvington, New Jersey, and EDWIN STANG, 25 Lockwood Drive, Roselle, New Jersey, they described GREENGLASS sufficiently that he was able to vaguely recall him. DALY stated that LANCIT and STANG were both assigned to the Los Alamos project at approximately the same time he was there.

DALY stated that he is certain that he never worked in the same section or group with GREENGLASS, and that he believes that the only place he would have seen him would have been in the barracks. According to DALY, he was never approached by anyone requesting information concerning his work or his knowledge of the work being performed at Los Alamos.

DALY said that he knows nothing whatsoever concerning GREENGLASS, being able to only vaguely recall him as an individual assigned to work at the project. He concluded by saying that he knew of no one assigned to Los Alamos whose beliefs would have made them susceptible to approach to furnish information to unauthorized persons concerning their work.

The only reference concerning MYRON DALY contained in the files of the New York Office was in connection with New York file 117-114. As contained in this file, DALY was interviewed by SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE concerning a souvenir of normal uranium in his possession. DALY furnished a signed statement at which time he admitted removing the uranium from Los Alamos, stating however that he had obtained possession of this uranium through official channels. By teletype dated September 29, 1950, the Newark Office was requested to locate and interview SIDNEY L. LANCIT and EDWIN STANG, mentioned above.
